patients need instructions on injury prevention such as fall precautions in the home and getting up slowly from a lying or sitting position.

For example, there is a communication method called ‘spread-spectrum’ that does not create interference.

One should not have too many fruits and vegetables especially raw ones, as they may be a source of the germs and bacteria of this season.

He has never been close to his mom she just didn’t have time for him.